

LITTLE LOVELY CRAFTS

Thank you for downloading my product. That means you like it as much as I do! I love making things and sharing them with you. Some for free, and some for a reasonable price. Because I put a lot of time and effort in it, I'd like you to read the following rules, to make sure my hard work gets the credit it deserves.

- All designs are copyright Little Lovely Crafts. You have permission to use my products, as long as you adhere to the following terms.
- Everything that I put on my website is for personal or classroom use.
- It is allowed to use something as a gift, but it is not allowed to share your (purchased) downloads with anyone else. Please refer them to my website so they can purchase/download it themselves.
- You may not copy, reproduce, sell, modify and/or claim it as your own.
- Please leave the name Little Lovely Crafts on your printables.
- Ask permission if you would like to use one of my photos.
- If you want to tell others about my product on your website or blog, do so by using the link: www.littlelovelycrafts.com, or by using a direct link to the product.
- When you download or purchase something, you agree with all the above.

Thank you and enjoy!

A vibrant watercolor illustration of tropical plants and flowers. The composition features several pink hibiscus flowers with detailed centers, large green monstera leaves with characteristic holes, and various types of ferns and palm fronds in shades of green. The background is white, making the colors pop. The text 'TROPICAL ISLAND VIBES' is centered in a bold, black, hand-drawn font.
